Experience

Medical Advantage

Michigan (Remote)
Website Designer
2022–Present

I have experience creating visually appealing and user-friendly interfaces for various digital platforms. I am proficient in using design tools such as UxPin, and Figma to translate user requirements into high-fidelity mockups and prototypes. I collaborated closely with cross-functional teams to ensure seamless integration of design elements, creation of social media graphics, and editing of photos for use in web development.
